15. No tattooing allowed at the show.
16. No pre show milk out. Overruddered does may be discriminated against by the judges. Please see to the comfort of your does and dispose of milk in a bio-secure manner.
17. Exhibitors are requested to be neatly and appropriately attired. Show whites are preferred while showing. Only exhibitors, judges, and those working the show are to be in the ring or at the show secretary tables. Shirts, and shoes must be worn at all times while in the barns and show rings.
18. If you are showing multiple breeds, please bring additional help or allow others to show your goats so the show can continue to run smoothly with minimal interruption. The show will not be held up to wait for exhibitors that are showing in the other ring.
19. COVID policy: At the writing of these show rules we have no way of knowing the future state of the pandemic.
 - If you are feeling unwell or exhibit any COVID symptoms before the show, we ask that you exercise all caution and PLEASE STAY HOME. Contact the show chair to update us to receive a refund of entry fees for Covid related cancellations.

- We request that all efforts be made to maintain social distancing.

20. Any situation arising not covered by these rules (including updated COVID rules) will be decided by the show committee. Show officials have the responsibility for enforcing rules, maintaining standards and solving problems that may arise during this event.

THE ORDER OF THE SHOW IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE. Order of breeds shown will be determined and announced once we are closer to show date and can establish the best flow with numbers of each breed entered. Show breed order will be posted outside each ring. Breeds will remain in the ring they are shown and judges with their show secretaries will travel between rings. For those new to this we will explain before the start of the first ring.

Each Grand, Reserve, and Best of Breed must remain in the ring for the judge to read tattoos and their registration papers must be presented to the show secretary at that time. Exhibitors are cautioned to verify the accuracy on the show report before signing the Report of Awards.
